

1. CONTEXT

Because of the Merchant's particular activity that is situated in the car rental industry (and renders services such as car rental, Rental of passenger vehicles and light-duty delivery vans, Short-term rental of passenger vehicles without drivers, Operational lease of passenger vehicles without drivers Rental or operational lease of light-duty delivery vans without drivers, Rental of other means of land-based transport) and considering the special requirements of this commercial activity and the specificity of the Merchant's needs regarding this activity, the conditions set out in these special conditions shall be an integral part of the Contract.

2. CONDITIONS

2.1. In order to protect the Merchant against problems concerning theft or damage of the leased vehicle or traffic fines and fuel costs, he is authorised to have the Cardholder sign a separate Sales Voucher, independent of the Sales Voucher signed by the Cardholder for the vehicle rental price.

2.2. If the signatory of the lease contract does not correspond with the Cardholder who signs the Sales Vouchers, the Merchant must have the lease contract co-signed by the Cardholder.

2.3. The lease contract signed between the Merchant and his customer must clearly refer to the drafting of two separate Sales Vouchers: the first one, hereafter called the First Sales Voucher, serves to cover the fixed rent agreed on and the second, hereafter called the Second Sales Voucher, serves to cover any additional, but contractually stipulated and accepted costs on the Cardholder's account.

2.4. The Second Sales Voucher must clearly mention "as guarantee".

2.5. The lease contract between the Merchant and his customer must clearly describe the cases in which the Cardholder agrees with additions to the Second Sales Voucher.

2.6. The First Sales Voucher must be immediately provided to KB SmartPay for processing.

2.7. The Second Sales Voucher must be provided to KB SmartPay for processing at the latest thirty days after the end of the lease contract. Under no circumstances can KB SmartPay guarantee payment to the Merchant if this period is exceeded.

2.8. Insofar as the Merchant strictly complied with the General Conditions, the Common Conditions International Brands and the applicable Service Conditions International Brands and the clauses contained in these present Special Conditions. KB SmartPay only guarantees payment of the Second Sales Voucher to the Merchant in the amount for which an Authorisation Code was obtained when signing the basic lease contract.
